

CEOs and Governance Seminar

February 13-14, 2009 Tucson, AZ

About the Program Leader

Maureen K. Robinson is a highly regarded speaker, writer and consultant on the leadership and governance of the nonprofit sector. She is the author of Nonprofit Boards that Work: The End of One-Size-Fits-All Governance and The Chief Executive's Role in Developing the Nonprofit Board.

Robinson founded the education program of the National Center for Nonprofit Boards (now BoardSource) and during her eight-year tenure created programs that influenced and shaped the practice of governance nationally and internationally. Among recent and challenging assignments, she served as an expert witness on governance in the Barnes Foundation's successful petition to strengthen the independence and capacity of its board, and worked with a city history museum facing bankruptcy to restructure its finances, management, and governance.
