Do or Don’t Shoot! Museums and Visitor Photography

With current technology making photography and the sharing of images a breeze, it has become harder to monitor visitor photography in galleries. Presenters discussed their institutions’ policies on visitor photography, the decision making process and issues for implementation.

Annual Meeting & MuseumExpo

As the museum field’s premier professional development opportunity, the Alliance’s Annual Meeting & MuseumExpo showcases the best thinking from practitioners and visionaries on major issues confronting museums and the communities they serve.

This session handout and presentation materials are from the 2014 Annual Meeting in Seattle.
Getty Museum Incoming Loan Agreement:

Unless otherwise notified in writing by the lender, the Getty may create and distribute reproductions of the object in print or electronic media for archival, educational, catalogue, web access, publicity or noncommercial purposes. It is understood that the loan may be photographed by the public while on exhibition subject to the same restrictions the Getty imposes upon the photography by the public of its own property of a similar nature.

Getty Museum Outgoing Loan Agreement:

Borrower may not photograph the object except for overall installation shots for archival purposes.

For public domain works: Photography of the object by the public is permitted provided no flash equipment or tripod is used and provided the photographs are not used for reproduction.

For copyrighted works: Photography by the public is not permitted.

Filming by the press for news and feature coverage is permitted as long as it is supervised by Borrower’s conservator to insure safe light levels and to keep the film equipment a safe distance away from the object. Only ambient gallery light is permitted during filming and photography.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND REPRODUCTION

Unless otherwise notified in writing by the lender, the IMA may create and distribute reproductions of the object in print or electronic media for archival, education, or noncommercial purposes, to create catalogues, indices, or research tools for such purposes, or to publicize and promote the display of the loaned work at the IMA. This includes, but is not limited to, use on the IMA’s internet websites, the website(s) of the exhibition’s sponsor(s) (if applicable) and the websites maintained by new media organizations. It is understood that the loan may be photographed by the public while on exhibition subject to the same restriction the IMA imposes upon the photography by the public of its own property of similar nature. Unless otherwise requested and agreed upon in writing, IMA will provide the lender with one (1) copy of the exhibition catalogue if one is produced for the exhibition.

PHOTOGRAPHY POLICIES

To protect the objects being photographed and the safety of other visitors, there are certain guidelines that must be followed when photographing at the IMA.

- Photography must be conducted without disruption to Museum operations or limitation to the accessibility of exhibitions, entrances/exits, doorways, and high traffic areas.
- Flash photography, tripods, and other photographic equipment are not permitted in the galleries, Lilly House, or Miller House.
- Photography is permitted for private, noncommercial use only. Photographs may not be published, sold, reproduced, distributed, or otherwise commercially exploited in any manner.
- Unless otherwise noted, photography is not permitted of the following:
  • Temporary exhibitions
  • Borrowed works of art

For more information on the photography policies visit:
imamuseum.org/photopolicy
or contact the Rights & Reproductions Department:
317-923-1331 ext. 171 or 251 or permissions@imamuseum.org.

PHOTOGRAPHY PASSES

All photography and video shoots, professional or amateur, which utilize professional equipment require a photography pass.

- Payment of fees is due with permit application.
- One Year Pass is $400
  • Covers 2 named photographers from one company
  • $100 per additional photographer
  • Free parking
- Single Day Pass is $50
  • Covers 2 named photographers from one company
  • Can be rescheduled in the case of inclement weather by contacting the Rights & Reproductions Department

Students may obtain a single day pass for completion of class assignments for free with a copy of their student identification.

To purchase a pass submit completed application and payment to the Rights & Reproductions Department by mail or by e-mailing permissions@imamuseum.org at least two weeks in advance of the intended date(s) of photography.
WALKER ART CENTER
Photography Guidelines

Visitors are welcome to take photographs in the Walker Art Center’s public spaces and collection galleries for personal, noncommercial use.

PERSONAL USE PHOTOGRAPHY IN GALLERY AND PUBLIC SPACES
Still photography for personal, non-commercial use is permitted in the galleries and public spaces like lounges and the Garden Café. Restrictions may apply to specific pieces or exhibitions. If you are uncertain if photography is permitted, please ask a Visitor Services Associate or Gallery Assistant before taking any photos. Please observe the following rules:

- Flash photography is prohibited in all galleries.
- Stabilization devices such as tripods and monopods are prohibited. Camera bags and other equipment may be restricted at the Walker’s discretion.
- Photography must not be disruptive to other visitors or block walkways.
- All photography must take place during the Walker’s normal business hours. The Walker reserves the right to restrict photography at any time.

  Tuesday-Wednesday 11am-5pm
  Thursday 11am-9pm
  Friday-Saturday 11am-5pm
  Sunday 11am-5pm

Please consider the following locations where photography is least disruptive to Walker Guests: Fitterman Garden Gallery and Galligan Porch.

WALKER CAMPUS
Personal photography is permitted throughout the Walker outdoor campus and Minneapolis Sculpture Garden.

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS AND AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHY SHOOTS
Formal portraits and commissioned photography require a photography permit from the Walker. Please observe the following rules:

- $50 Photography Permit fee. These permits are good for 1 hour and are issued on a first-come, first-served basis. No advanced reservations. Photography permits can be picked up at the Bazinet Garden Lobby desk.
- Permits will be issued during the Walker’s regular business hours Tuesday-Friday only. No photography permits will be issued on Saturdays or Sundays. The last pass will be issued 1 hour before the end of Walker business hours.
- Only two photography permits will be issued at a time.
- Permits allow for the limited use of public spaces only.
- Stabilization devices, lighting equipment, wardrobe changes, props, and make-up stations are prohibited.
- Photography must not be disruptive to other visitors or block walkways.
- Groups may include up to 5 people.

Groups larger than 5 people must request permission through the Walker’s Facility Rental department one month in advance. Additional fees may apply. (facility.rentals@walkerart.org or 612.253.3540)

The Walker reserves the right to prohibit photography in any area at any time. Failure to adhere to guidelines or staff direction may result in being asked to cease activities and leave the premises.

*Professional photography in the Minneapolis Sculpture Garden requires a permit from the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board.
Takeaways

• Contractual Restrictions:
  • Do you have the resources to clear lender permissions?

• Security:
  • Do you have the resources to properly enforce and monitor the suggested policy?

• Conservation:
  • Is your institution willing and able to take on the conservation risks?

• Visitor Experience:
  • What type of visitor experience do you want to offer?

• Intellectual Property:
  • Is a large percentage of your collection still protected by copyright?
  • Do you frequently organize special exhibitions of copyrighted works?
  • What types of uses of visitor photography do you want to permit?
  • Have you clearly communicated your policy to visitors?
