

Sustainability: Governance, Relevance and the Environment

February 3-5, 2019

Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, Miami, Florida

Sunday, February 3, 2019

Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, East Terrace

4:00 pm                      Optional guided tours
Interior main house or the gardens; self-guided tours are also an option

5:30 – 7:30 pm            Evening Reception
East Terrace

Dinner on your own

Monday, February 4, 2019

The Garage at Vizcaya Village (across S. Miami Avenue)

8:30 – 9:15 am            Coffee and check-in
Coffee, light breakfast, and networking

9:15 – 9:30 am            Welcome remarks

9:30 – 10:15 am        Keynote, Sustainability: Climate Action, Resilience, Accountability
Joel Hoffman, Executive Director, Vizcaya Museum and Gardens

10:15 – 10:30 am        Break

10:30 – 12:00 pm        Environmental Sustainability and Climate Action at Your Historic House or Site
Sarah Sutton, Principal, Sustainable Museums and Cultural Institutions Sector Lead, We Are Still In and Stephanie Shapiro, Chair, AAM's Environment and Climate Network

Generously supported by:

Rowman & Littlefield

DEMIST, International Committee for Historic House Museums

Monday, February 4, 2019 (cont'd)

12:00 – 1:00 pm      Lunch

1:00 – 2:00 pm      Benchmarking 101

Angela A. Moore, Facilities and Sustainability Coordinator, Missouri History Museum

2:00 – 3:15 pm      Explore Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, breakout sessions

Choose one of the following:

1. Conservation Lab
2. Baydrift Research Project
3. Preserving Heritage, Urban Farming

3:15 – 3:30 pm      Break

3:30 – 5:00 pm      Sustainability Slam

Rotate between three facilitated sustainability-related interactive conversations!

1. Community sustainability and climate engagement – Caroline Lewis, Founder & Senior Climate Advisor at the CLEO Institute and High School Director at The Cushman School
2. Establishing an economically, socially, and environmentally sustainable plan for accessible storage – Dr. Joelle Wickens, Preventative Conservator, Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library and Associate Director, Winterthur/University of Delaware Program in Art Conservation; Jesse Kraft, Unidel Louise Roselle Graduate Assistant, University of Delaware
3. Wind, water, snow and rain: planning and executing storm response for winter blizzards to summer hurricanes – Susan Funk, COO, Mystic Seaport Museum

5:30 pm              Informal reception

Join attendees and organizers for additional networking before adjourning

Dinner on your own

Tuesday, February 5, 2019

Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, Courtyard

- 8:30 – 9:15 am      Coffee and check-in
Coffee, light breakfast, and networking
- 9:15 – 9:30 am      Introduction to the day
- 9:30 – 10:15 am      Keynote, Sustainable Development: Climate Heritage, Historic Preservation, and Community Revitalization
Andrew S. Potts, Partner, Nixon Peabody LLP
- 10:15 – 10:25 am      Sponsor remarks from GSM
- 10:25 – 10:40 am      Break
- 10:40 – 11:25 am      Financial Sustainability at your Historic House or Site
Becky Beaulieu, Director, Florence Griswold Museum
- 11:25 – 12:10 pm      Operations Roundtable
Choose one of the following discussions
1. Direct Care and Historic Sites - Janet Vaughan, Vice President, Membership & Excellence, AAM
  2. Strategic Planning and why it is important for your organization's sustainability – Ann M. Loshaw, ALo Consulting
- 12:10 – 1:00 pm      Lunch
- 1:00 – 2:00 pm      Explore Vizcaya Museum and Gardens, breakout sessions
Choose one of the following:
1. Historic House Challenges
  2. 3D Documentation
  3. Mission & Vision
- 2:00 – 2:45 pm      Avoiding Staff Burnout
Jackie Ly, Museum Engagement Manager, Morven Park
Rebecca Gavin, Director of Education Programs at Connecticut Historical Society
Bethany Hawkins, COO of AASLH
Kelsey Brow, Curator at King Manor Museum
- 2:45 – 3:00 pm      Wrap-up and adjourn